

Welcome to our Worship Service, Sunday, July 28, 2024

The conflict in Middle East with the war between Israel and Hamas is nothing new. From the beginning of their history, God had promised His chosen people that He will never forget them nor let their feet to wander here and there if only they obey His commands and follow all the laws He has given through His servant Moses. But unfortunately these people not only forsook God, they bowed down and worshiped all the false gods of their predecessors. Today, we will examine Habakkuk 1: 12-2:20 which is a dialogue between the prophet and the Lord. The prophet was concerned with the wickedness that was rampant in Judah but confused with God's silence.

*Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope:
Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed,
for His compassions never fail.
They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness.*

Lamentations 3: 21-23

Today's Scripture Reading: Habakkuk 1:12-2:4

This morning in the sanctuary, pastor Dan will continue his teaching on Spiritual Warfare. Today, we will discover that the people of God have a great deal of spiritual protection in their lives. Whether you know it or not, God has given His angels charge over you, to help you and keep your foot from stumbling! Think of a time in your life when you had to push through to a moment of victory - you might have had an angel helping you. Don't believe it? This morning, we will look at the life of Daniel and see how angels fought on his behalf and brought him success and understanding.

*For He shall give His angels charge over you,
To keep you in all your ways.
In their hands they shall bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot against a stone.
Psalm 91:11-12*

Today's Scripture Reading: Mark 5:1-13
