

Welcome to our Worship Service, Sunday, August 9, 2026

There are a lot of phrases that we use in everyday life but sometimes, people assume that some well-known phrases are from the Bible when they are not or misuse actual Biblical phrases to say things that Scripture does not say. This is not a new problem yet it has never been easier to read God’s Word. So, for the month of August, Pastor Greg is doing a series on “Is it in the Bible?” to get us to critically examine some of these phrases and what the Bible actually says. This is something we all must do because as Scripture says,

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.
(Psalm 119:105)

So, this morning, Pastor Greg is going to address the phrase, “This too shall pass” and have us examine what God’s Word has to say about life and the timing and passing of the seasons within it.

Today’s Scripture Reading: Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
