

Welcome to our Worship Service, Sunday, Aug. 17, 2025

How we treat one another matters greatly. From the earliest relationships, we have an understanding of what it means to be with one another and the importance of love and faithfulness. Last week, we began to look at a time when God’s people needed a reminder that God loved them and how we are to respond. And yet, at the time of Malachi, God’s love was not in the hearts of many of the leaders and even the priests were guilty of failing to love God and their own families! And so, God, sends this important reminder through Malachi,

Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us? Why then are we faithless to one another, profaning the covenant of our fathers?
(Mal. 2:10)

So, this morning, as we look at Malachi chapter 2, let us examine our hearts and minds to make sure we are setting a good example for others, that those we look to for leadership are modeling Christ’s example and always looking to God, the Author of Life, in how we are to live.

Today’s Scripture Reading: Malachi 2:4-12
