

Welcome to our Worship Service, Sunday, May 21, 2023

It's the May long weekend, and most of us are beginning to think about summertime! A time when the hot sun finally comes to stay for a while, and the cold nights of winter are long forgotten - it's the changing of the seasons.

The book of Ecclesiastes has a great deal to say about the seasons in our lives, and the times that come and go. This morning, pastor Dan will share a message about the many things in life that change almost constantly, and the few remain the same.

Today, as we head into summer, let's consider what "time" it is at HPBC, and what we can and should be doing as a local church. And let's never forget that no matter what time it is, it's always the right time to share the Good News of Jesus Christ!

*There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens.
Eccl. 3:1*
